

BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY

Dr. Mildred Wells Herring

Mildred Wells Herring is a native of Baltimore City, where she received her secular education. She is a graduate of Western High School and attended the Community College of Baltimore, Liberty Heights' campus. She is the oldest child and the only daughter of Minnie Wells and the late William Wells. She is the mother of one son, one daughter-in-law and one granddaughter. She became a widow in 1998.

Mildred accepted Christ at an early age. She began attending Sunday school at five years old at the Wayland Baptist Church, then located on the corner of Monroe and Franklin Streets under the anointed Pastorship of the late Rev. William W. Payne. At the age of 12 she joined the New Second Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of her uncle, the late Rev. Julian Price. In 1986, she rededicated her life to Christ and became an active member of the Bible Study and Sunday school under the leadership of Pastor Felton Williams. That same year, she enrolled in the newly formed Philadelphia Bible Institute and College as a first year student under the leadership of the late Dr. Rufus E. Carter. By June 1989, she received her Associate of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies. She never looked back, and continued her Biblical education earning a Doctorate in Christian Education and a Ph.D. in Christian Counseling. Dr. Herring has previously served in the following ministries:

- Radio Broadcast Announcer

Dr. Herring is currently a member of the New Pilgrim Baptist Church where Dr. Roosevelt Davenport is her Pastor. She has a passion for personal application of God's Word in her life, as well as in the lives of all Believers. Her strongest desire is that she becomes a "Vessel of honor fit for the Master's use" (II Timothy 2:20-21). She is thankful for the abundant grace that God has bestowed upon her life and her ministry, for "His grace is sufficient" (II Cor. 3:5).
